The result is one that no true Republican can mourn over as one of the irretrievable losses that als name was Bower, and have our section for himself his name was bowler inself and two companions. Bob, who had been quiety sating in the back ground all this time, now arose in all his magnificent proportions of height and breadth, faced the thine Israelites, and with head erect and shoulders thrown back, and without saying a word to them, allowed them to measure the dimensions of one of their opponents, and sites a magnetic or two they retired and the same than the s soll, when interviewed on the subject, expressed a belief that the movement would e much more injurious to the Republican than to the Democratic organization; and the result, in this district, at least, fully proves that Bob's head was level on the subject.

BERE IN WESTON

We are not a bit scared. Our Republicans were determined to redeem the town, and they did it. In 1876 Wilson's majority over Scott in Weston was 83; in 1878 Hubbard's pajority over Wilson was 84; in 1878 Hubbard's pajority over Wilson was 84; in 1878 Hubbard's pajority over Wilson was 85, in 1878 Hubbard's pajority over Wilson was 85, in 1878 Hubbard's pajority over Wilson was 54, a Republican gain of 137. So you see that we have a resting place here where a Republican is safe, even in the interior. Lewis county upon a thorough canvass between the two parties, is Republican. It doesn't take any figures to prove this. Look at our officers. For the benefit of your readers I give you the names and policitics of all:

George Jackson Arnold, independent, elected to the House of Delegates over the the Democratic nominee by 726 majority.

Judge Jasper Peterson, Republican, President of the County Court.

the Republicans had no candidates for the local offices, and consequently their vote was not polled. The only crumb of comfort I hear from that benighted region is he defeat of Levi Johnson (Confed.) by Newt. Kee, a sound Union man for Clerk of the County Court. GEORGE JACKSON ARNOLD, the successful candidate for the Legislature in Lewis county, will be a leading spirit in the House. He is well known throughout the State ag one of the best land lawyers in West Virginia; and his personal popularity is attosted by his overwhelming majority. His defeat of Jackson, the Democratic nominee, is the most crushing ever known in our political lattice. He is a man of wealth, and of liberal views in all things proper. The Republicans here are full of life and energy. They are confident of redeeming the county; and if the peopleman now suggested is carried out, Lewis may safely be put down as a solid Republican county.
